

Employer of the Year Transition Award 2008

Marshalls Department Store
4213 Washington Rd, Evans, GA 30809
Manager: Amy Shultz

Nominated by: Michael Hopkins
Presented by: Touch the Future/Transition/SERID Awards Committee

Our 2008 Employer of the Year Transition Award winner has opened their store and heart to our job training students. Our students rely on the knowledge, patience, and time that this store manager and her employees give to our students.

Our students are in the transition program to learn valuable job skills that can carry into the work force. Our winner is extremely interested in our students and values the opportunity to teach them the meaning of working with other people. The store manager is a very caring person and her attitude shows in the work ethic demonstrated by her employees. They strive to manifest both their own personal best and to do their best for the store.

This employer is the perfect example of what a partnership should be because they are willing to help the community by allowing our students to become part of the work force. Our winner for the 2008 Employer of the Year Transition Award is Marshalls Department Store in Evans, Georgia.
